

PROGRAM

Life as a Clinician Scientist

Australian
Academy of Health and Medical Sciences

8.30 AM	Registration
SESSION 1 WHERE MEDICINE MEETS SCIENCE - WHAT IS A CLINICIAN SCIENTIST?
9.15 AM	Ms Catherine Luckin AAHMS CEO	Welcome to Life as a Clinician Scientist NSW
9.30 AM	Professor Louise Baur Paediatric Medicine	Paediatric nutrition and obesity: How I went from clinical physiology to global public health policy without realising it!
10.00 AM	Professor Mark Harris General Practice	How might a clinician scientist be best placed to reshape primary care?
10.30 AM	Morning tea
SESSION 2 WHO IS A CLINICIAN SCIENTIST?
11.00 AM	Professor Gemma Figtree Cardiology	Lessons from across the world and getting to the heart of disease mechanisms
11.30 AM	Professor Carol Pollock Nephrology	Bringing insights from the bedside to the bench and back
12.00 PM	Professor Peter McCluskey Ophthalmology	Getting the red out: 30 years of scleritis research as a clinician scientist and current areas of research need in ophthalmology
12.30 PM	Supporters Session
1.00 PM	Lunch
SESSION 3 WHAT SKILLS DOES A CLINICIAN SCIENTIST NEED?
2.00 PM	Professor Carolyn Sue Neurology	Being a scientist is in the DNA of every clinician and how make to build a research question
2.30 PM	Professor Gayle Fischer Dermatology	Scratching that itch to know 'why': building a clinical-academic career and department with what you have
3.00 PM	A/Professor Jonathan Karpelowsky Surgery	Scalpels and science: why being a scientist makes me a better surgeon and how to deliver a great talk – secrets to sharing your science and story
3.30 PM	Afternoon tea

SESSION 4 THE CAREER OF A CLINICIAN SCIENTIST - THE BEST OF BOTH WORLDS
Panel Session

Dr Vita Birzniece
Endocrinology

Dr Marthe Chehade
Surgery

4.00 PM

Dr Tom Guy
General Medicine

Dr Vincent Ho
Gastroenterology

A/Professor Tri Phan
Immunology

5.00 PM

Event close

Thank you to our sponsors

Platinum sponsors

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

UNSW
SYDNEY

Gold sponsors

#LACS2019

@AAHMS_health

@MedSciAcademy