

ORDINARY FELLOWSHIP ELECTION NOMINATION GUIDELINES

Governing Policy

These Guidelines are made under the Policy on Election and Admission of Fellows and Associates, and should be read in conjunction with the Criteria for Fellowship.

Purpose

These guidelines specify the processes and key dates for nominating a candidate for election as an Ordinary Fellow of the Australian Academy of Health and Medical Sciences (AAHMS), including Overseas Ordinary Fellows.

Provisions

1. Nomination of candidates for Ordinary Fellowship

1.1. Entitlement to nominate

Only AAHMS Fellows may make a nomination.

Each Fellow may propose up to four new candidates for election to Fellowship in any one year, but may Sponsor additional nominations. This limit includes nominations for Overseas Fellows.

1.2. Eligibility for nomination

Eligibility is restricted to Australian citizens and permanent residents, active in an aspect of health policy and/or practice and/or health and medical research at the time of the nomination, and, in the opinion of the Proposer, eligible for Fellowship of the Academy when judged against the published Criteria for Fellowship. Candidates must be residing in Australia at the time of election.

The Proposer, as principal nominator, is responsible for confirming the candidate's consent to nomination and continuing eligibility, including residency criteria, for each year the application is under consideration. Please note that candidates remain under consideration for three years unless they are elected, the nomination is explicitly requested to be withdrawn or is withdrawn as a consequence of there being no update provided to the secretariat in a given year.

1.3. Nomination Procedure

- Proposers are to email the Secretariat (fellowship@aaahms.org) for the current nomination documents with the name of the intended candidate, their current email address and institution.
- The Proposer will receive the application forms, including a Candidate Consent & Certification Form and Fellowship Nomination Form and an invitation to submit the completed documentation through a Dropbox File Request.
- Proposers must list the candidate's primary position and institution on the nomination form. If this is overseas, but they were previously based in Australia and expect to be again in the future, the candidate will be considered as an Overseas Fellowship candidate – Overseas candidates are still considered through the usual selection process, but it is important that their contributions are judged according to their domestic/overseas status. However, it should be noted that Overseas Fellows would usually have been elected while based in Australia, rather than being elected while Overseas.
 - For individuals located permanently overseas, but with strong connections to Australia, proposers should consider nominating them for Corresponding Fellowship. Refer to the Criteria for Fellowship and the Corresponding Fellowship nomination guidelines for further information on these categories.

- Four Fellows of the Academy, being the Proposer and three additional Sponsors, must endorse the nomination by signing the Nomination Form. Digital signatures are accepted.
- Proposers should submit a copy of the completed and signed Nomination Form and essential documentation, together with a signed Consent and Certification Form, via the provided Dropbox File Request.
- Files can be added to the File Request at any time up until the advertised deadline for completed nominations, at which point they will close, and no further documents will be accepted.
- The Proposer shall be the primary contact regarding all aspects of their candidate's nomination.
